

Hartland Computer Earns Esteemed 2013 Angie's List Super Service Award

Award reflects company's consistently high level of customer service

Hartland Computer has earned the service industry's coveted Angie's List Super Service Award, reflecting an exemplary year of service provided to members of the consumer review service in 2013.

"We're proud to receive this award for the third year running. We've changed the face of computer repair in the Lexington market with our focus on total customer satisfaction and we're pleased and humbled by the reviews we gotten from our customers," said Steve Hamrin, owner of Hartland Computer.

"Only about 5 percent of the companies Hartland Computer competes with in Lexington are able to earn our Super Service Award," said Angie's List Founder Angie Hicks. "It's a mark of consistently great customer service."

Angie's List Super Service Award 2013 winners have met strict eligibility requirements, which include an "A" rating in overall grade, recent grade, and review period grade; the company must be in good standing with Angie's List, have a fully complete profile, pass a background check and abide by Angie's List operational guidelines.

Service company ratings are updated daily on Angie's List. Companies are graded on an A through F scale in areas ranging from price to professionalism to punctuality. Members can find the 2013 Super Service Award logo next to company names in search results on AngiesList.com.
